Workshops From West Multnomah Soil & Water Conservation District

Multnomah Weed Watchers

March 18, 7-9:00 p.m.

Sauvie Island Grange, 14443 NW Charlton Road, Portland

Learn about the new Multnomah Weed Watchers program offered by West Multnomah Soil & Water Conservation District. Find out about how to identify and report some of the worst newly emerging invasive plants and technical/financial assistance to help with your invasive weed issues.

Day of Stewardship

March 21, 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

Linnton Community Center

As part of the Forest Park Conservancy's Day of Stewardship, the WMSWCD is sponsoring an ivy pull and native planting event in the Linnton neighborhood. Volunteers should bring work gloves, long pants, and a full water bottle. A volunteer appreciation party will follow at the Lucky Lab on NW Quimby.

Balch Creek Watershed "Summit"

May 9, time/10:00-1:00 p.m.

Audubon, 5151 NW Cornell Road, Portland

Join us as we learn about and discuss issues affecting the Balch Creek Watershed, including invasive weeds, soil erosion and septic maintenance. Our experts will offer information on how the watershed is impacted and what measures we can take to lessen the impact. We will also take you on a nature walk through the watershed courtesy of Audubon naturalists.

Wapato State Park Ivy Pull

May 16, 10:00-12:30 p.m.

Wapato State Park Parking Lot

As part of SOLV's statewide Take Care of Oregon Days, the WMSWCD is organizing an ivy pull at Wapato State Park on Sauvie Island. Volunteers will meet in the gravel parking lot at the state park at 10:00 a.m. They should wear long pants and bring work gloves.

The mission of the West Multnomah Soil & Water Conservation District is: "To conserve and protect soil and water resources for people, wildlife and the environment."
